Note: Any student who has committed to competing cannot drop out past January 14\textsuperscript{th} without still being financially obligated for the $40 registration fee.
Things you need to know…

1. Please arrive at CATN no later than 6:30 a.m. on Saturday, February 1st to receive your registration materials, which will include:

   - Name tag (registration)
   - Resume (resume is required and will need to be turned in to the contest judge)
   - Contest location sheet

2. Make sure your name and CATN’s name does not appear on any clothing items or any of your tools. You may be disqualified.

3. If you haven’t received it already, ask your teacher for a copy of the study guide. Study it! When you first arrive at your contest site, you will be given a SkillsUSA Knowledge Test. The scores from this test will be used to break ties.

4. Safety Equipment is required! So is the proper industry standard clothing. Talk with your teacher if you are unsure what to wear.

5. All of your tools and safety equipment need to be brought to the Data Center by Monday, January 27th during class. You will not be able to go to your classrooms on Saturday.

6. The awards ceremony will be at South River High School (auditorium), which is walking distance from CATS. The awards ceremony will begin at 1:30 p.m.

7. The bus arrives back at CATN at 3:00 p.m. If you are having someone pick you up, they must be here by 3:00 p.m.

- If Baltimore City Public Schools or Anne Arundel County Public Schools have a two-hour early dismissal on Friday, January 31st, the Regional SkillsUSA Competitions will be cancelled on Saturday, February 1st, 2020, and will be rescheduled for Saturday, February 8th.
• However, if Baltimore City Public Schools or Anne Arundel County Public Schools have a two-hour delayed opening on Friday, January 31st, the Regional SkillsUSA Competitions will be held as scheduled on Saturday, February 1st.

• If it snows on Saturday, February 1st, please check the CATN website/twitter page for the status of the contests.

Alternates

Alternates should show up on Saturday, Feb. 1st with all of the other contestants. If contestants from any school do not show up, the following process will be followed:

Regardless if other schools have alternates, if school A is missing a competitor for a contest and school A has an alternate for that contest, then that alternate takes the spot.

Regardless if other schools have alternates, if school A is missing a competitor and school A has more than one alternate available for that contest, then there will be a lottery between school A's alternates to determine who will take the spot.

However, if school A is missing a competitor and school A does not have any alternates, then an open lottery will occur between any available alternates from other schools involved in that competition.
